Exercise Concludes: 1500hrs (3.00pm) Sunday 9th June 2024
Cost: $30 (TBC)

Exercise Information:

Exercise Ardua is a barracks weekend with friendly competition held at West Melton army range. Teams compete in a variety of physically and mentally challenging activities testing the skills they have learnt and how well they work as a team. Activities can include shooting, stretcher carry, first aid, teamwork, leadership, rogaine, and sports.

Positions will be confirmed once an applicant has applied and been approved by their NOK. After applications have been NOK approved, cadets will receive Joining Instructions with more information. If you have outstanding finance with the unit you will be unable to attend camp until this is resolved.

Applications for this activity close on CadetNet at 9pm on Thursday 30th May 2024
